Jay Land Named Show Jumping Hall of Fame Rider of the Month for January

Lexington, KY–February 3, 2011–Jay Land has been named the Show Jumping Hall of Fame Rider of the Month for January.

Land competes in the East Conference Amateur-Owner division of the Show Jumping Hall of Fame Jumper Classic Series aboard Nepal. The month of January was a huge success for the pair, as they earned first and second place honors in Series classes held during the first two weeks of the Winter Equestrian Festival in Wellington, FL., earning 275 points.

The Show Jumping Hall of Fame Jumper Classic Series honors one rider each month as the Rider of the Month. The honor goes to the one rider who earns the most points on one horse in Series competition that month.

“We would like to congratulate Jay Land on being our first Rider of the Month for the 2011 Series,” said George Morris, President of the Show Jumping Hall of Fame. “We are looking forward to an exciting Series, and to honoring many more talented equestrians, like Jay, with our Rider of the Month Award.”

The Show Jumping Hall of Fame Jumper Classic Series saw competition at 7 events during the month of January, and will see classes at more than 100 horse shows before the Series culminates in the Year-End Championships at the National Horse Show in November.

The Series hosts separate divisions for junior and amateur-owner riders in two Conferences—the East Conference and the West Conference. Series standings are used to help determine junior and amateur-owner entries for the National Horse Show.

In the overall standings through January, Jay Land and Nepal led the amateur-owner standings in the East Conference while Christina Kelly and Camirage led in the junior division. Classes for the West Conference are scheduled to begin in April.

The top three horse-and-rider combinations in each division are as follows:

East Conference amateur-owner division standings:
